United Press Telegram.
LONDON, July 11.—A dispatch received here this morning from Sofia is to the effect that the Bulgarians will not oppose the Roumanian advance into Bulgarian territory. This is taken to mean that Bulgaria will permit the Roumanians to take possession of the 2,500 square miles of land the country demands for remaining neutral during the war with Turkey.

Diplomats await with interest further reports concerning the Italian conflict. Following the action of Bulgaria in placing her affairs in the hands of Russia, it is believed that a settlement of the conflict will be reached.

If Bulgaria agrees to the demands of Roumania, it is pointed out that the Roumanians will withdraw their troops from Bulgaria and the Bulgarians will have one less enemy to contend with.

Late dispatches from the Balkans continue to tell of Bulgarian reverses. The Greeks and Serbians appear to be victorious all along the line. The Bulgarian advance has been checked.

BUCHAREST, July 11.—The invasion of Bulgaria by the Roumanians began at 11 o'clock this morning. Several divisions of the Roumanian army crossed the border and started an advance into the interior. The Roumanian minister left Sofia today and the Italian ambassador is looking after his affairs.

All Roumanians are prepared for war. King Charles announced this morning that he will call a meeting of parliament for next Wednesday to consider plans for the invasion of Bulgaria. It is stated that the first step in this direction will be against the fortified town of Silistria.

WHEN CAPITAL TREMBLED

Fifty Years Ago Today Washington Was in State of Siege.

United Press Telegram.
WASHINGTON, July 11.—Civil War veterans and old residents of Georgetown and Washington today recalled that the fate of the National Capital trembled in the balance exactly fifty years ago when the Confederate troops under General Early placed Washington in a state of siege. The defense by the Union troops lasted until July 13.

The Sixth Army Corps arrived from the army of the Potomac which had just defeated Lee at Gettysburg, and as starting the siege of Richmond, Va. It was only after the Sixth Corps and additional reinforcements came up that Washington was saved from a possible occupation by the Confederates, who withdrew into Virginia.

Prosecution of Kuhns Absurd, Treasury Official Declares

WASHINGTON, July 11.—"There is absolutely no truth in the statement that President James S. Kuhns and Vice President W. S. Kuhns of the First-Second National Bank of Pittsburgh are to be criminally prosecuted for wrecking the institution," said Acting Controller Kane of the Treasury Department today.

"The Treasury Department has evidence of the violation of the national banking laws, but we do not believe that the Kuhns had anything to do with the violation. A false statement of the affairs of the bank was issued a short time ago, and according to information in our possession, this statement was prepared by a bookkeeper."

WASHINGTON, July 11.—An investigation by the Interstate Commerce Commission of the financial operation of the New York Central lines was proposed in a resolution adopted by the Senate. This action was taken without debate.

E. M. May, who is employed by Mr. Harman, discovered the robbery. The money drawer had been removed from the store and emptied. Robinson was arrested this morning.

PENNSY TRAIN HELD UP HERE WHEN ENGINE IS DERAILED

Train's Delay Is Occasioned by a Mishap at the Station; Accident Not Serious.

Pennsylvania railroad passengers bound for Uniontown were an hour late in reaching their destination last night, when the pony trucks of passenger train No. 100, due in Connellsville at 7:07, jumped the track a short distance from the station here.

The accident occurred as the train was drawing into the Connellsville station. The engine was being run slowly preparatory to stopping, when the front trucks of the engine left the track. The train stopped abruptly and stood for 50 minutes at the Connellsville station where section hands were endeavoring to replace the trucks on the track.

The waiting for a while several passengers decided to ride on to Uniontown by trolley. They boarded a car at Uniontown corner but by the time they reached the West Side found their train blocking the crossing. They left the car and continued south on the train.

The act declared void yesterday gave each of the established courts four judges.

ONE CAR SMASHED AND TWO HURT IN
AUTO ACCIDENTS*Two Have Narrow Escapes
When Machine Hits
a Trolley Car.*YOUNGSTERS WERE MUSSUED UP

Pennsylvania Lad Has Leg Broken by a Physician's Automobile; Amateur Bike Rider Ruins into a Machine and His Face Is Somewhat Jarral.

Two Uniontown men had a narrow escape this morning when their automobile collided with a trolley car at Legat's Crossing. The auto was damaged almost beyond repair. J. A. Richards was its owner.

The accident occurred at 6 o'clock. Mr. Richards was driving the automobile, and, seated in front with him, was a companion whom he was bringing to Connellsville. The auto was running at a fair rate of speed as it turned at the crossing and when the street car came along, the chauffeur was unable to stop in time to avert the accident.

McKormack Jesse Nichol was in charge of the trolley car. He thought the chauffeur would halt to permit his car to pass. When he saw that Richards continued running, it was too late for him to stop.

The automobile struck the car behind the front end. It was turned completely about and both occupants were thrown to the ground. Neither was injured.

The automobile was badly damaged. The wind shield was smashed, the axles twisted and the hood and engine were broken.

A seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Detwiler of near Pennsville was struck by Dr. W. J. Churchill's automobile yesterday afternoon at Murphy's Sliding and suffered a broken right leg. The boy, who was accompanied by his mother and another member of the Detwiler family, came from behind a wagon and was crossing the road when the wheel of the car caught his right leg breaking a bone. The boy was taken home by Dr. Churchill. Dr. A. J. Colborn was called and assisted in setting the fracture.

While learning to ride a bicycle last evening, Adolph Herberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Herberg, ran into an automobile driven by Harry Dunn and suffered painful cuts on the head and lip.

Mr. Dunn was driving on Fairview avenue when the boy came out Carnegie avenue and lost control of the wheel. He was taken to his home on South Pittsburgh street in Mr. Dunn's car.

WILL TALK CLARK BILL

Municipal League Meeting Is on the Program Tonight.

A meeting of the Municipal League will be held this evening in the Chamber of Commerce rooms for the purpose of discussing the Clark third class city bill. Attorney E. C. Higbee will lead the discussion. It was Mr. Higbee who first suggested that the "Clark bill" did not apply to Connellsville.

The league has invited directors of the Chamber of Commerce and the Fayette county delegation in the Legislature to attend the meeting and hear their views on the subject.

It is understood that Mr. Higbee has requested other lawyers to attend the meeting and air their legal ideas as to the Clark bill and its application to Connellsville. Higbee wants the league to finance a lawsuit to determine the town's exact status.

The league will probably pass the buck and suggest that as the Chamber of Commerce whipsawed things up for the commission government measure, it should finish what it started.

Pittsburgh Policemen Charged With Enticing Minor Girls.

PITTSBURGH, July 11.—Charged with enticing minor children, Policemen Lee Kennedy and W. J. Lavery, recently suspended from the department, were held under $3,000 bail for a hearing before the police criminal board.

THREE CASES OF TYPHOID REPORTED TO HEALTH BOARD

One of the Patients Is George Schommer, Aged 14, of Fairview Avenue.

During the last few days three cases of fever have been brought to the attention of Health Officer Barthold Hottel. Two of them were reported this morning. One is at the home of George Schommer, 255 East Fairview avenue, whose son, John, aged 15, is a patient; and the other is at the home of Mrs. Emma Sidway, 254 East Fayette street, where a daughter, Emma, is ill.

In the month of March, when more than a score of cases were scattered about the borough, the State Health Department took a hand, assisting in stamping out the disease. Two officers were sent to Connellsville from Harrisburg, and one of them remained until the progress of the fever was checked.

While the state officials were here, two of the cases, the milk and water supplies, were tested. It was found that the water was in excellent condition, but a similar report could not be made concerning the milk supply.

AUTHORITIES CLASH

Dist. Attorney and Coroner at Odds Over Alice Crispell Murder.

United Press Telegram.
WILKES-BARRE, July 11.—The mystery over the death of Alice Crispell, whose body was found in Harvey's Lake on Monday, has precipitated a bitter fight between the district attorney and coroner's offices. Startling developments are expected at any time.

The preliminary hearing of Herbert Johns, acquitted by the coroner's jury, will be held tonight. Detective McKelvey of the district attorney's force today asked that the body of the girl be exhumed for further examination.

"I did not lay all my cards on the table at the inquest," McKelvey declared today. "I saw two of the coroner's deputies on the jury and knew what would happen. The coroner and the jury acted illegally. They were charged with determining the cause of the crime and who is responsible, not with exonerating anybody. The verdict was not signed and is illegal."

WANTS INFORMATION

Squire Bialer After Pottsville View of the Clark Bill.

In an effort to gain further light on the assertions that Connellsville is not included under new Clark commission government bill, Clerk of Council A. O. Bialer has written the clerk of Pottsville borough council to ascertain the views of the legal lights of that town on the question.

Pottsville is the only town in the state that is in Connellsville's class. Both towns have voted on the question of becoming third class cities and both had expected to secure commission form of government under the provisions of the Clark bill.

It is understood that the Pottsville officials have taken up the question with the authorities at Harrisburg and that they intend to bring the matter to a head at an early date. Whatever opinion is rendered in their case will affect Connellsville.

PAYS DEATH PENALTY

Negro Goes to the Chair for Attack on Little Girl.

United Press Telegram.
RICHMOND, Va., July 11.—The final chapter in the most expeditious criminal prosecution in the history of the Old Dominion was enacted here today when Benjamin Bailey, colored, who criminally assaulted six-year-old Mary H. Follins of Great Falls, paid the penalty in the electric chair.

Bailey was arrested on May 29 and indicted at a special session of the grand jury. Less than two hours after he appeared in court on the following day, a jury had been drawn, the cases of both the defense and the state presented, the verdict of guilty had been returned and he was sentenced to death in the chair.

INSURGENTS HAVE ALREADY BEGUN TO DIVIDE THE SPOILS*Councilmanic Bolters Have Fat Committeeships
Picked Out.*MAKING BIDS FOR RECRUITS

They Need Fred Harmaning in Fight to Oust Priel as President, but the West Side Man May Be Hard to Land; Plenty of Volunteers for Jobs.

Frank Priel has not yet been deposed as president of Town Council, but the busy bees of the opposition are going right ahead with their plans to run the town, once they get into the saddle. Already there is skirmishing for committee appointments at the hands of the new president which, O. F. Burns asserts, will be made at the meeting following the ousting of the present president. Councilman Burns has accepted the presidency with the proviso, of course, that it can be delivered.

Few of the present committee heads are to be retained, the insurgents intimate. A committee chairmanship means patronage. Even members of council who have not taken sufficient notice of the interest of their constituents to attend the meetings with any degree of regularity are ready to step into the breach and grab down a fat committee appointment if there is any way it can be engineered.

Lavish promises are being made with a view to gaining recruits against the present organization. A staunch supporter of the present majority is to be approached, it is said, with the tender of a fat committeeship. When Councilman F. H. Harmaning arrives from Rochester tonight he will be met by a delegation bearing gifts. He will be offered the chairmanship of the public safety committee. Harmaning's one fight in council has been to keep the auto fire truck on the other side of the river. As chairman of this committee he would hold the situation in his own hands. The only fly in the ointment, so far as the insurgents are concerned, is that Harmaning has already been assured of this position by his friends in council. Just how the insurgents hope to win him over by such an offer is not clear. The West Side volunteers are being asked to help deliver Harmaning to the opposition.

Squire W. P. Clark is being jostled along by the rebels with a promise that he will be retained as chairman of the street committee. The principal criticism against the street committee and its chairman it is whispered, has come from the neighborhood of a certain staunch Democrat who for several years regarded the Connellsville streets as his very own, and acted accordingly. If there is one thing this Democratic councilman likes it is to lose the street. Squire Clark would last as chairman of the street committee under the new regime, 15, under the circumstances, much in doubt.

It is said that if Harmaning cannot be won over, and the rebellion goes through successfully, E. L. Berg of the Third Ward will be made chairman of the public safety committee. Berg has intimated that he would accept the honor.

Already the insurgents are having their troubles arising the spoils of war, and it is causing them loss of sleep. They assert vehemently that H. C. Hays must be deposed as chairman of the finance committee, E. C. Harmaning is to get the hook as head of the police department, and T. J. Brennan is to be named as chairman of the new finance chairman, but there are so many candidates for the other jobs that the leaders are moving cautiously.

An interesting and somewhat amusing phase of the situation is the attitude of several councilmen who have never yet gone before the people, but were elected as members by the council itself. They were among the first to turn against the men who put them in office.

There is no assurance that the movement to oust President Priel will be successful. Past experience has shown that some of the insurgents have failed to "stay hitched" on various propositions. This was never more clearly demonstrated than during the late lamented effort to oust Borough Solicitor J. K. Renner. At that time several councilmen, some of them now identified with the reform movement, were pledged to support the ouster resolution. They either bolted their pledges or remained from the meeting.

This is a Republican movement," O. F. Burns is quoted as saying. "We are glad to have the support of the Democrats. The other fellows would welcome them just the same."

It was stated that the documents pleading the members to attend the meeting and support the ouster resolution were prepared by "one of the best attorneys in town." This points in the direction of a certain prominent attorney always active in reform movements of various degrees of importance, and particularly Democratic reform movements. The consensus of opinion is that several well-meaning but unsophisticated members of council are giving encouragement to the return to power of an organization which for years ruled the town with an iron hand.

COAL AND IRON PRICES.

The resolute stand of the Connelville merchant coke operators for $2.50 coke has thus far been entirely successful because the operators have with few exceptions been of one mind concerning the justice and wisdom of that price; and it might be added that their attitude is an evident surprise to the consuming interest, which, hitherto, has been the rock against which the fuel interest always broke. The Cleveland Daily from Trade, which will not be accused of being a coke trade organ, sums up the situation as follows:

"Connellville coke production for the first half of 1913, and coke and anthracite pig iron output for the same period, make an interesting comparison, based upon the figures first available today. The output of coke for the first six months of this year was slightly more than 10,000,000 tons. This is indicative of a total in excess of 21,000,000 tons if the first-half rate of production were prolonged throughout the entire twelve-month. The total production of coke and anthracite pig iron in the first half of this year was a little over 10,000,000 tons, the heaviest aggregate production in any like period of the country's history. This rate of production, if carried throughout the remainder of the year, would have meant 32,000,000 tons for the twelve-month, over 3,000,000 more than the record output of 1912, which was slightly in excess of 29,000,000 tons.

"Both pig iron and coke production, however, even in the first half of 1913 with fewer furnaces and even operating at production on the decline. The net loss in stocks from the active list between the opening of the first half and of the second half of this year has only been the maintenance of a number of additional merchant furnaces in the north and south are preparing to blow out. Since July 1 a total of 1,200 ovens have been put out in the Connelville region; with production has decreased about 75,000 tons in the past week and shipments have declined about the same tonnage.

"Coke makers in the Connelville region are exceedingly close students of pig iron market conditions, as they have frequently demonstrated. Since stocks are blowing out, coke makers are curtailing production by putting out the same proportion of ovens. Spot furnace coke has sold at $2.50, ovens, the past week, and it is not unlikely that there is little immediate chance for lower prices on Connelville fuel. At least it does not seem likely that fuel for delivery in July will be much cheaper than today."

The Daily Courier probably means in the last paragraph that coke for delivery in August will not be any cheaper than it is in July, and it certainly will not be if the Connelville operators stand together with any degree of unanimity. This they are likely to do because their present attitude is due solely to an earnest conviction that they cannot in justice to themselves afford to sell any more coke at a less price so long as present costs obtain. If their stand were the result of association or combination which it might be torn by its own dissensions, there would be a better chance on the part of the furnacemen for cheaper coke.

The coke operators and their customers, the furnacemen, are doing the proper thing in curtailing the production of their commodities to meet the demand. This policy is not new to the Connelville coke region. Had it been a custom of the pig iron producers the low levels to which iron and coke have frequently gone would never have been known. Piled-up pig has too often broken down the metal market and crushed the price in the common ruin. The worm has turned. The under dog has crawled out. No longer will the merchant operators of the Connelville region permit the furnacemen to drug coke prices down to prehistoric levels with their chicanery and brotherly love they will point the path to prosperity by setting a good business example in avoiding overproduction and insisting upon a fair share of the common prosperity of the steel business.

It is gratifying to observe that the furnacemen seem to see the path, if dimly at least intelligently.

A VAIN THING.

George Honorable Guthrie is on his way to Japan at last and there's a political hole to be filled in the Pennsylvania Democratic machine. Field Marshal Bruce F. Sterling, Fayette county's political strategist, was thought to have been slated for the State Chairmanship by the famous School of Nature first known as the Barfoot Boys, but this seems to be all off. The Connelville News, owned by Sterling organ, boasts a dux horse in the person of a Philadelphia unknown. From Caesar and Woolley to Roosevelt and Sterling, it is more or less agreed that political ambition is a vain and fleeting thing.

The exigencies of the Mitchell machine may demand a Philadelphia chairman, but we don't believe anybody can fill the position with greater ability than our own and only Bruce.

MISTER PRESIDENT.

The movement afoot to depose the President of the Connelville Council "in the interest of the people" may or may not be warranted; but it is certain that if a presiding officer lacks in dignity, courtesy and fairness, he invites his own impeachment and deposition. President Friel is not the first presiding officer of the Connelville Council to be under suspicion of such shortcomings, but if the movement against him succeeds he will be the first one called to account in a summary manner.

Another persistent and erroneous notion which has infected the minds of the presiding officers of the Con-nelville Council is that they are by virtue of their office commanders-in-chief and dictators of councilmanic proceedings and action. They have frequently assumed the authority of determining just what matters shall be brought before the body and what shall be hurried, and on occasions they have graciously and gratuitously appointed the appointments of committees, and even the power has recently been taken away from him in such prominent assemblies as the House of Representatives at Washington and the House of Representatives at Harpersburg. His duties are to preserve the fairness of debate, to regulate the proceedings according to parliamentary rules, and to sign such papers as require his official attestation.

It is the servant of the body, not its boss.

Perhaps it will not be necessary for the parents of certain Fourth Ward school children to go to jail. We do not imagine the School Board will proceed to such extremes. Besides, it is a serious question whether the board can compel parents to send their children outside of the ward, especially when suitable rooms may be rented within the ward to take care of the overflow.

Connellville's established industries do not make much noise, but they work steadily and grow gradually.

We are in receipt of an anonymous communication from Perry township questioning the wisdom of the board in selecting the township teachers and charging favoritism. Such charges are common, and when presented by a citizen who is afraid to back them with his name they are not worthy of serious consideration.

The Baltimore & Ohio railroad will pay semi-monthly in half a dozen states besides Pennsylvania. Railroads no longer discriminate.

The prisoner in the Connelville lock-up who was convicted of his rope and used it to hang himself was properly rebuked. Hanging is now against the law.

The Good Roads movement out of Connelville has actually begun.

The Pittsburg coal trade is good and it is due to be better. The oil business is giving back what it took away and the West Virginia situation is helping some.

The falling off in West Virginia's coke production is due to the fact that a considerable portion of its coal is now coked in Indiana.

The anthracite coal tax will benefit the crushed coke trade.

The Tenth regiment led the procession at Erie, which was right and proper; for some of the boys have "it" and all of them are "fit."

The House of Representatives at Washington, not to be outdone by the Senate, has appointed a Lobby Investigating committee with power to "pull into everybody's business. Legislative probes are in a fair way to become inquisitorial sniffers."

Harry Thaw's patriotic spirit is not dead; it is merely imprisoned.

The Balkans.

By GEORGE FITCH.

Author of "At Good Old Slawash."

The Balkan States are the oldest problem in the world, next to woman and politics.

They are located at the jumping off end of Europe, next to Asia, and have been there on the job since the beginning of the present system of tolling time.

The Balkans consist principally of an extensive collection of mountains, each one of which conceals a band of patriots in the act of murdering.

The Balkans have a record for battles and other bickerings which make Great Britain's early years read like the minutes of a bowling society.

The principal Balkan states are Unrest, Indignation, Insurrection, Anarchy and Chaos. Other prominent states are Rumania, Bulgaria, Serbia, Montenegro and Greece. All the Balkan states together are about as big as Montana, and they have about 20,000,000 population. Crowd twenty million cowboys and western prospectors in a space the size of Montana and then give them four different kinds of religion, five languages and ten nationalities to fight about and the result would be the Balkan States in a mild form.

There are so many different nationalities in the Balkan States that a Balkan city can scarcely be told from any old New England town during a cotton mill strike. Among the most Balkan of the Balkans are the Serbo-Croats, the Bulgarians and the Magyars. Generally they fight each other, and when they don't do this they unite and fight the Turks. The Balkans have been balking on the Turk proposition since the fifteenth century. They have kicked them many times, but usually Europe steps in at this and gives back all the marbles. The Turkish population has now been worn down to about 1,500,000, and most of these are in an unhealthy condition. The men of the Balkans wear short white skirts and long, fierce mustaches. They are not long on literature and the arts, but they are talented fighters. They have been fighting since the year 1. When there is peace in the Balkans it generally means that someone has gone after a fresh supply of gunpowder.

"But usually Europe steps in at the end and gives back all the marbles."

At present the Balkan States are at their old job of kicking the Turks, and they are doing it in a more workmanlike manner than ever. When they have finished it, they will probably unite, and will in time take up automobilizing, stock jobbing, ward politics and other evils of modern civilization, after which they will become less picturesque but considerably more prosperous.

5 O'clock Closing and Why it Should Interest You

On July 7th, this store and a few of the other leading stores of this city, who have always been ready to respond to any progressive movement in which the public is interested, inaugurated the early closing movement. The word has been passed along by a generous public that is always considerate of the welfare of the working people, especially when early closing can be brought about without loss or inconvenience to all concerned. You, personally, are to decide whether this movement shall continue. If you can arrange to do your buying during the cool hours of the morning or early afternoon early closing will continue; otherwise, it will be necessary to keep open an hour longer each evening during the hot summer months. Our view is that every woman would prefer to be at home at that hour and get the evening meal over with as soon as possible. What do you think about it?

MANUFACTURERS' OUTLET SALE BEGINS SATURDAY, JULY 12th.

A year ago, July 12, we started our great sale of the Feldstein-Levine Company Stock. As you know, it was the largest and most successfully conducted sale in Connellsville. A growing business cannot stand still. Last year's best must be the stepping stone for still better this year. Accordingly we prepared for months to inaugurate a sale that would at least equal if not surpass the wonderful records established in the Feldstein-Levine Company Sale last year. We got into immediate touch with many great manufacturers and importers. They are finishing the largest season of their history. Most of them took stock June 1st, the rest are preparing for fall. Some of them have considerable stocks on hand, others smaller ones, but in the aggregate, they amount to thousands of dollars. With prosperity on every hand and confidence everywhere, and being informed of our plans for a sale, they were more than willing to close out their stocks at absolute cost. Some of them even sacrificed part of the cost in order to immediately realize and count cash instead of merchandise. For this reason, we are calling this sale—

"THE MANUFACTURERS' OUTLET SALE."

How great the values are you can tell for yourself by reading the bargains below listed. Thousands of dollars worth of merchandise, brand new, fresh, clean and desirable, thoroughly dependable in every respect, will be offered to you during this sale at record breaking prices. New bargains will be listed each day. The first broadside is given below. Come expecting the extraordinary values and splendid service you received during the Feldstein-Levine Company Sale.

SCOTSDALE, July 11.—Arrangements have been commenced this week for the third annual fireworks celebration to be held in Scottdale under the auspices of the Italian citizens aided by their American friends. Michael Maglieri is chairman of the committee of arrangements and will appoint a large number on the committee within the next few days. Tentatively the date of the affair has been fixed upon as September 5, although this time may be changed later if it so appears advisable to the committee. The solicitors for the funds to defray the expenses of the day will soon set to work. Each will carry a subscription list signed by Chairman Maglieri, and the names of the solicitors will be published when they begin work. For two years these celebrations have been held in Scottdale and have attracted thousands to the town. The fireworks exhibit has been particularly magnificent and surpassing anything of the kind ever shown here. Chairman Maglieri says that the celebration of this year will outclass either of the other ones. Three bands will be engaged for the day's feature of the entertainment and a list of sports will be put on.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETS.
The Scottdale Board of Education at its last meeting chose the Broadway National Bank again as the depository, they paying 3 1/2 per cent interest on daily balances, the same as they paid heretofore. Charles S. Hall, cashier of the bank, was elected treasurer. The secretary was instructed to prepare the annual report of the school which is filed with the State Department of Education. A letter was received from Allan Backus, the teacher of manual training, the only one elected who did not file his acceptance of the position for the year with the board. The position had not been made to fill it. Mr. Backus wrote that during the time since he left here for New York his mother had died and he had not written to the board until now. The secretary was instructed to write to him asking that he make immediate reply if he desires to accept the position of manual training teacher for the coming year, and if so to forward a new application for the place. Dr. O. I. Lane, a member of the Board of Education, was re-elected secretary for the ensuing year.

President Will on "Resting" at Summer White House When Not on Golf Course or Motor Trips

PRESIDENT WILSON AT Summer White House
KEEPING TABS ON WASHINGTON PRESS ASSOCIATION

President Wilson did not lose his touch upon the fevered pulse of turbulent Washington while he was playing golf and resting with his family at Harlakenden, the summer White House, near Cornish, N. H. He was snatched, as you see here, sitting on a porch atop reading the latest news from the National Capital. The President spent much of his time on the Dartmouth College golf course and in motor trips in the mountains.

CROPS ARE FAIR

Corn Flourishes But Other Crops Average Generally Low.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—Drought and early frost in certain parts of the country brought the average condition of the crops in the United States on July 1 down to nearly 10 per cent lower than on the same date last year and to 1.7 per cent lower than the average crop condition on July 1, for some years past, 10 years in most cases.

Conditions are below the average, the Department of Agriculture announced in the Atlantic Coast and North Central states, except Virginia, Florida, Ohio, Wisconsin, Iowa and Nebraska. They are above the average in the South Central and Far Western states, except Kentucky, Alabama, Montana, Utah and California.

The lowest conditions are found in California, where July 1 found the average 15.7 per cent below the average; North Dakota's crops are 13.7 per cent below; New Hampshire, 13.3 per cent; and South Dakota, 11.1 per cent. Wyoming is highest above average, with 9.5 per cent, followed by Nebraska, 7.7; Texas, 6; Washington, 5.5; Oregon, 5.2; and Iowa, 5.1 per cent.

Corn shows the most flourishing condition, standing 163 or 3.5 per cent above its 10-year average. Other crops show the following averages: (1903-1912): hops, 103.1; winter wheat, 92.1; cotton, 85.1; millet, 93.4; sorghum, 93.4; sugar cane, 98.2; onion, 95.1; blackberries, 98.1; hay (all cultivated kinds), 97.9; raspberries, 97.8; tobacco, 96.7; potatoes, 97.1; clover, 95.3; tomatoes, 95.2; grapes, 95.2; peaches, 93.7; pasture, 91.4; strawberries, 91.4; oats, 90.3; barley, 89.7; pears, 88.7; oranges, 88.4; spring wheat, 85.6; timothy hay, 86.3; lemons, 83.3; bluegrass seed (in Kentucky), 82.5.

WANTS SUBMERGED ORE.

Minnesota Is Making Hard Fight for Immense Deposits.

The state of Minnesota is making a bitter fight to gain possession of vast deposits of submerged iron ore. This ore is in lake beds along the iron ore ranges. Embarras lake alone covers 15,000,000 tons and many more millions are covered by other lakes. Some time ago the state started a test suit for possession of ore under Longyear lake, Mesabi range. The lower court held the state had no claim. An appeal has been taken, and it will ultimately go to the United States Supreme Court for final settlement.

CHILD'S FROCK OF FINE LINEN.
A sensible frock for a little girl is offered for consideration today. An especially happy feature of this frock is its capability of frequent tucking. The material itself is a joy to the laundress, being a fine grade of linen and the fact that the dress opens directly in the front will cause a green of praise to ascend from the ironing-board. Another feature is the sleeves—insert without fuss into the drop shoulder. The lower portion of the bodice and skirt are of machine embroidery and are set on in irregular outline.

GAS-PROOF MACHINES

Pittsburg Coal Company Adopting Safety Coal Cutters.

The Pittsburg Coal Company is placing in some of their mines what is known as gas-proof cutting machines. Eight of these machines have been shipped from the shops at Scott Haven, two being placed in the mine at Nanown, two in Sunnyside and four in the Gallatin mine. These machines have been properly and thoroughly tested in the presence of fire bosses, electricians and other officials, which trials proved so satisfactory that the company put the machines into immediate use without and hesitancy. The machine is simply the regular cutting machine, with the motor box enclosed in an air-tight covering, through which no gas can enter, and hence it would be impossible for it to come in contact with a spark from the commutator. The cable connections as well as the starting box are so arranged that all air is excluded from the electric workings, and in this way the machine is rendered gas-proof in all mine workings.

It is said the coal company will adopt this style of machine for work in all its mines. The gas-proof machine promises to settle to a great extent the differences now existing between the men and the management on the use of safety lamps and electric machines in the same mine.
